

The FCC has served the country well and the current regulations have preserved a free press in America. There is no benefit to the citizens of allowing fewer and more corporate media outlets to control the medium and the message. Please continue to regulate the vital aspect of democracy to assure a wide diversity of opinion and expression in America.